A black and white photograph of a person in a dark suit and white shirt standing in the doorway of a building with large windows. The person is seen from the back, looking out into a dark, wooded area. The building has a classical architectural style with a pediment and decorative moldings. The windows are multi-paned and reflect the surrounding environment.

FOREWORD

We, the staff of the 1965 Railroader, have attempted to make this book a record of our life at Crewe High School. Join us as we recall our experiences.

May this edition give you fond memories - today and tomorrow.

A "Welcome Back to School" bulletin board is being arranged by Mrs. Wilson.

The opaque projector is adjusted by Mrs. Christine Clark for use in English class.

New School Activities

This record of the activities of the student body of Crewe High School for the school year 1964-65 is portrayed through the reflections of one of its graduates.

Added to the regular academic courses was a third year of both Latin and French. For seniors who had not taken agriculture and mechanics, general mechanics was offered by the Agriculture Department. For the first time, eighth graders took classroom instruction in Drivers' Education.

One of the most important innovations in the school curriculum was the addition of our former community band, along with its director, Mrs. Dorothy Roberts. Another highlight of the year was the organization of a girls' drill team by the girls' physical education teacher, Miss Katie Presnell.

Newcomers to the high school faculty were Mrs. Gloria Smith, English; Mrs. Wanda Padgett, history and geography; Miss Katie Presnell, girls' physical education; and Mrs. Helen Wilson, librarian.

The Crewe High band is assembled to furnish music at a football game.

French III students Virginia Pflegar, Julia Brown, Ann Taylor, and Cliff Olson look on as Linda Bradshaw uses the dual recorder.

Create Vivid Recollections

Mr. Jones, the first supervisor of education in Nottoway County, pays a visit to Crewe High School.

Mrs. Bridgforth and Mr. Via await the Biology Program on E.T.V.

Mr. Wayland Jones, former history teacher of C. H. S., left the faculty to become the first supervisor of education for Nottoway County. Since the high school enrollment reached an all-time peak, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson used her entire time for guidance services.

An opaque projector, donated by the class of 1963, vitalized instruction in the English Department.

Educational television has become an integral part of the Crewe High School curriculum. In October, the entire school building was equipped with facilities to receive and transform the UTV to regular FTV sets in time for the Goldwater-Johnson campaign procedures.

In retrospect, 1964-65 completed a year of academic progress and achievement. The hours of homework, the college boards, the hectic pace are beginning to fade through a veil of sentiment.

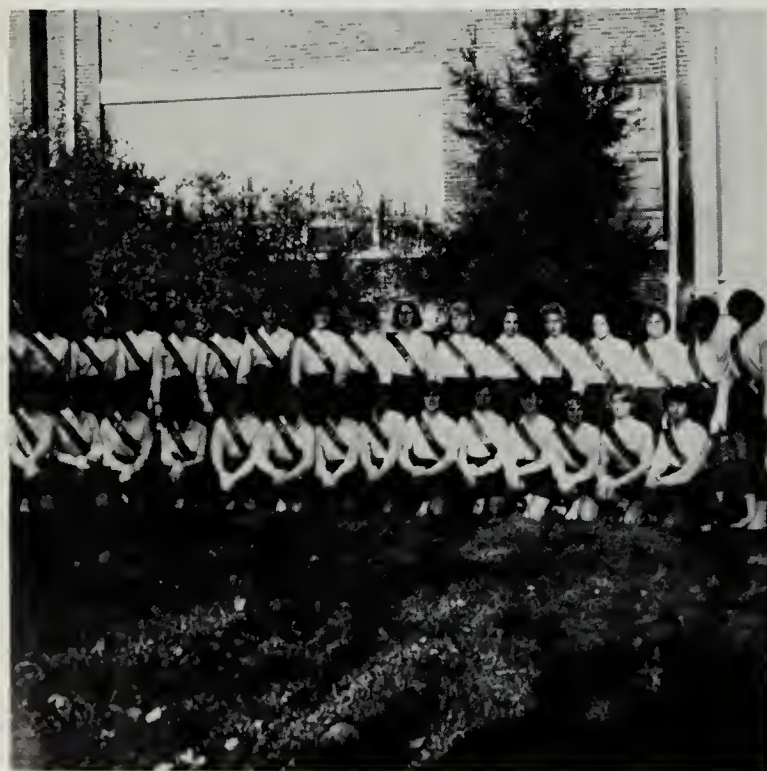

Nancy Jane Flippen and Linda Mitchell are Drill Leaders.

The S.C.A. co-ordinates student activities

The Student Council is the governing body of Crewe High School, which correlates classes, student activities, and clubs. Each student at Crewe High is a member of the S.C.A.

The Council, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Christine Clark, is composed of the S.C.A. officers, all class and club presidents, and a representative from each homeroom.

The Council sponsors all assembly programs including assemblies presented by individual clubs and the regularly scheduled Southeastern Assemblies.

Homecoming festivities were again assumed by the S.C.A. The Council presented a new robe to the school for the Homecoming Queen.

The Council also sponsored an orientation program for students at the beginning of school and provided guides and welcoming posters. In the same manner, the S.C.A. assisted in the activities of Career Day.

Activities were sending clothing to a needy family, scheduling dates of the school calendar, assisting the Varsity Club in a "Notes for Normie" project, and placing a suggestion box in the hall.

Crewe High School was host to the Farmville District S.C.A. meeting in November. Barclay Farrar, District Chairman, assisted by Dexter Oliver, District Vice Chairman, was in charge of the program.

In the spring, representatives were sent from Crewe to the State S.C.A. Conference at Martinsville, Virginia. Delegates were also sent to the Youth Forum at Thomas Jefferson High School in Richmond, and Delegates Barclay Farrar and Sherry Pfirman attended the S.C.A. Summer Workshop at Radford College.

We are proud to have had Barclay Farrar serve this year as State S.C.A. Vice President.

New C.H.S. Band creates enthusiasm

This year the Crewe-Burkeville Band is operating under the sponsorship of Crewe High School.

The Band, under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, with Jerry Worsham as Drum Major, performs at all home football games and at many other activities.

The Band consists of seven majorettes and forty-four musicians.

The vivacious band has added color and enthusiasm to the activities of Crewe High School.

Library Club stimulates interest in reading

The Library Club is a service club whose main objectives are to stimulate a greater interest in reading and to arouse a greater interest in the use of library facilities and books.

This is accomplished by an assembly program, posters, bulletin boards, and the observation of National Library Week and Book Week.

The Club purchases additional books and audiovisual materials. It strives to improve library services and to improve the library's appearance. The Library Club sells paperback books and Christmas cards and wrappings to raise the necessary funds.

To welcome the new members, a supper was held at the Crewe Community Center.

The new librarian, Mrs. Helen Wilson, serves as sponsor to the Library Club.

FFA stimulates interest in the study of agriculture

The Future Farmers of America is an extra-curricular activity having its foundation in vocational agriculture. All students enrolled in the vocational agricultural classes are members. The chapter membership at the present time is 53. The purposes of the organization are to develop leadership among the members; to create and nurture a love of country life; to develop recreational activities among the members; and to provide educational contest among the members to stimulate interest in the study of vocational agriculture.

FHA program accents family friendship

The over-all objective of the Future Homemakers of America is "Contributing to the Joys and Satisfactions of Family Living." The program of work for the Crewe Chapter emphasizes "Preparation for the Future Begins Today," one of the state projects.

Chapter activities of the year include prepared programs for each meeting; a covered dish dinner and program in November for members and their families; open house in the Home Economics cottage in December; Daddy-date night in February; and the Mother-daughter reception; and installation of the new officers in April.

Each activity is planned to help individual members develop attitudes and skills which contribute to "Joys of Family Living now and in the future."

The membership of this service club consists of girls elected from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. New members are voted into the club at the beginning of the school year.

This year, the Pep Club sponsored the home baseball games. A "sock hop" after the Crewe-Amelia football game was sponsored by the club.

The initiation of the new members took place at the annual Pep Tea, which was held at the home of Sherry and Nancy Pfirmen.

The club colors, red and white, are worn every Friday by all members. On the first Friday of the month, the PEP emblems in the form of a "P" are worn.

Initiates Barclay Farrar, Wanda Saunders, and Linda Jamerson reach the top of the pile of boxes collected for the bonfire.

Doing a dance as part of their initiation at the Pep Tea are Virginia Pfleger, and Carolyn Jones.

Carolyn Jones, Ann Taylor, Nancy Pfirmen, Janet Simonton, and Barbara Hamner stop collecting boxes for a moment of foolishness.

The Ace of Clubs supports athletic fund

The Ace of Clubs, a service organization at Crewe High School, has as its main activity this year the sponsorship of football. Profits from the concession stand and dances are donated to the athletic fund.

Prospective members from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes are considered for membership on the basis of their interest in school activities, willingness to work, and ability to get along with others. The initiates are entertained with a banquet and are formally taken into the Club at a candlelighting ceremony.

Members wear the Ace colors, green and white, every Thursday. Every other Thursday, either the pin or emblem must be worn.

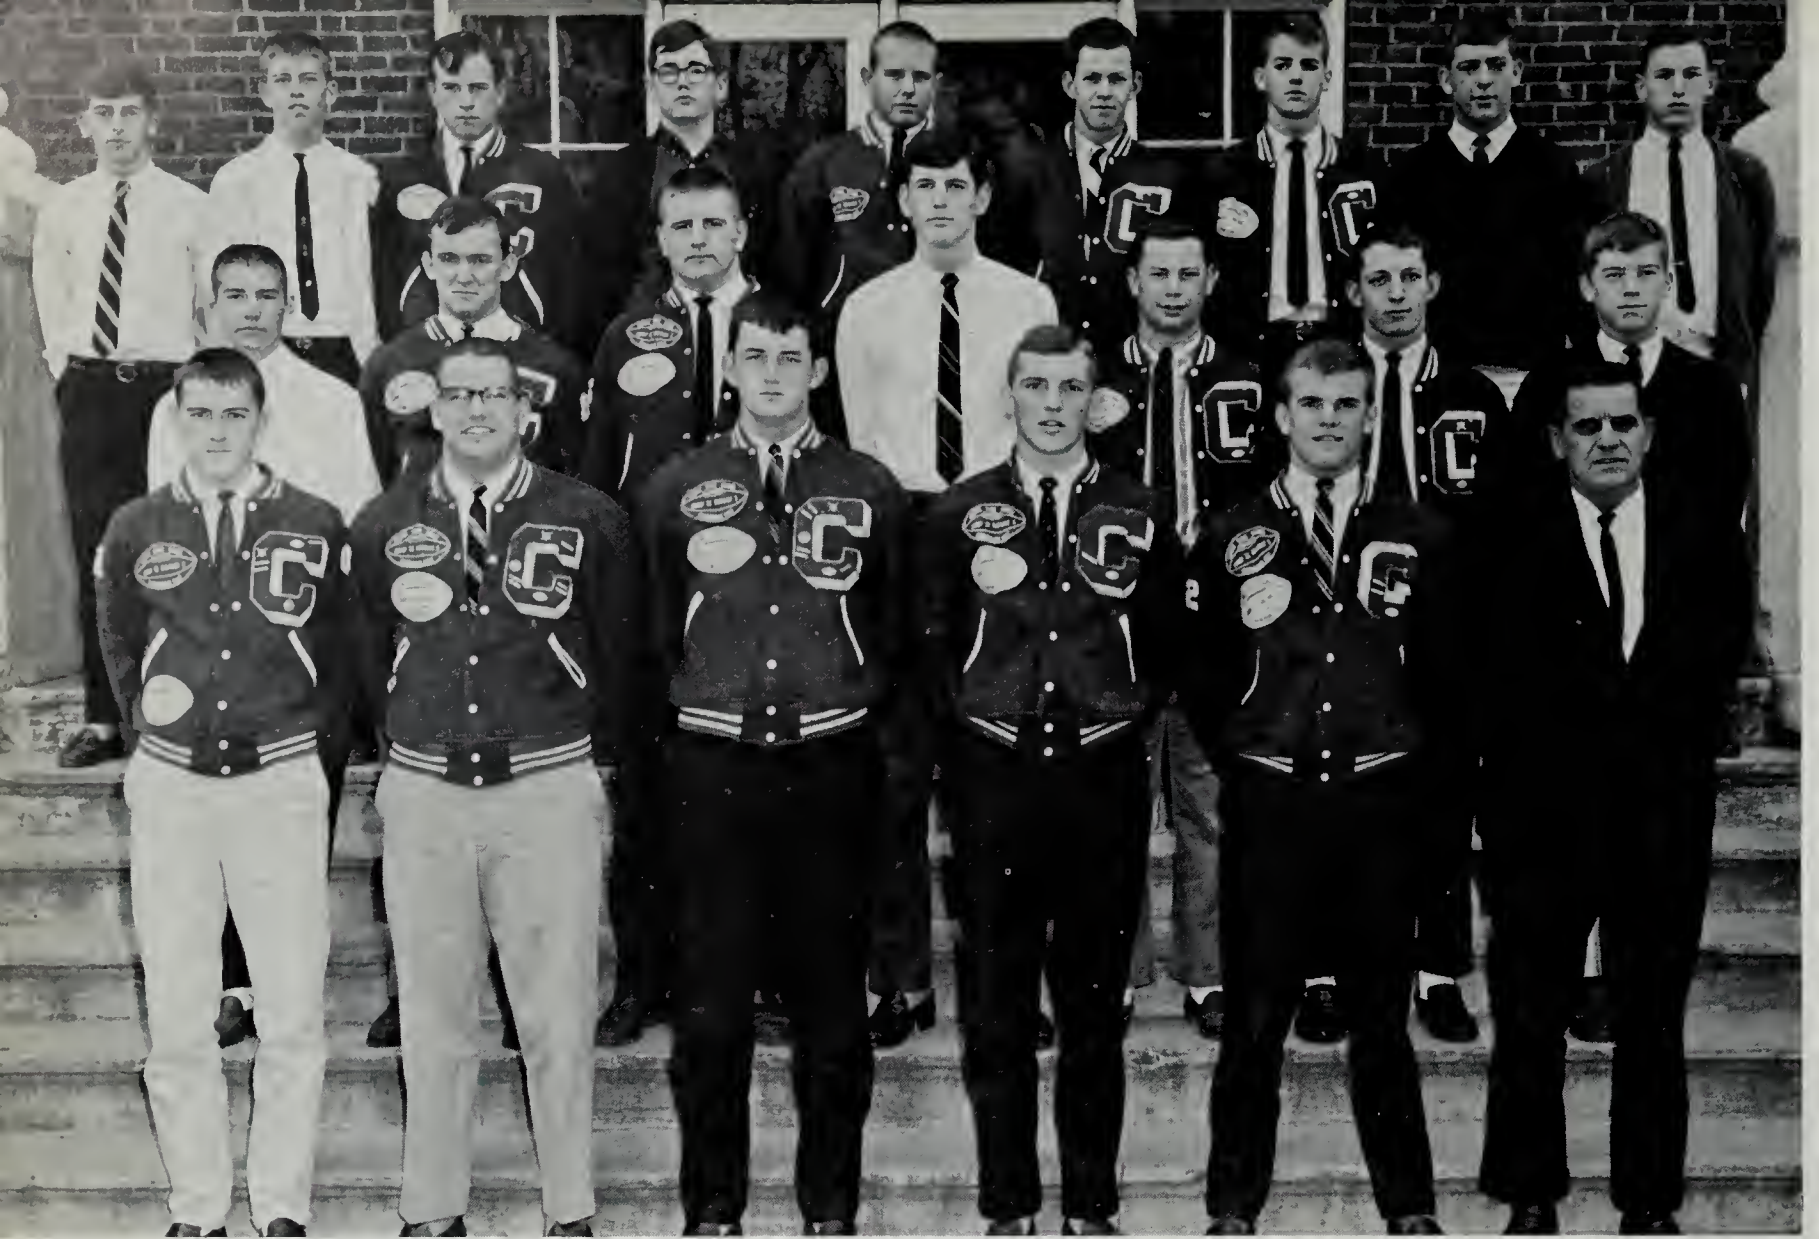

Pat Bradshaw "begs" for a bone from Brenda Large.

Faye Norton requests permission to hold Mr. Via's hand.

Initiates June Cranford and Donna Chitwood enjoy a dance at the Ace Banquet.

THIRD ROW: Wayne Spender, Lee Roger, Butch Willia, Dickie Ingram, Kenny Perkins, Bobby Staples, Bobby Williamson, J. R. Jones, Billy Pugh.

Varsity Club promotes enthusiasm in Athletics

The Varsity Club was organized in 1962 by a group of enthusiastic lettermen and their sponsor, Coach Golubic.

Membership in this Club is limited to boys who have won the varsity letter in football, basketball, or baseball. The principles and objectives of the Club are to stimulate interest in the athletic program of Crewe High School, to promote sportsmanship, and to maintain a high respect for the varsity letter.

Every year the Varsity Club presents a rookie-of-the-year award, commonly known as the "Rinky-Dink Award," to some non-letterman of the football team who has contributed the most enthusiasm and support to the team effort.

Another project of the Club this year was contributing $100 to the Athletic Association.

The Club's social project planned for this year was a Christmas dance some time during the holidays.

As in preceding years, the Varsity Club has printed and sold official programs at all home football games and has printed football schedules which were placed in store windows in Crewe.

Club officers: Johnny Crittenden (President), J. R. Jones (Reporter), Bobby Williamson (Vice President), Vaughn Bozman (Secretary), Billy Fox (Treasurer).

High standards are set by the Beta Club

The Beta Club promotes honesty, service, and leadership within the student body. Beta members are recognized for scholastic achievement, character, and leadership ability.

The activities of the Beta Club include the publishing of the school paper, "The Dispatcher"; sponsoring the annual Valentine program and dance; and holding a Beta Bop. Proceeds from these projects enable the members of the Club to attend the State Beta Convention, which highlights the Beta year.

The Beta Club strives to improve character, to raise the scholastic average of students, and to encourage them to be better citizens in the world of tomorrow.

Club officers Janet Roop, Gloria Ellett, Dickie Ingram, Ronnie Furqueron, and Ron Crymes make plans for the Beta Convention.

Dispatcher informs students of School News

"The Dispatcher" serves as the eyes of the student body. Events and opinions are reflected through "The Dispatcher." Assignments are posted weekly on the bulletin board. Finished assignments are relayed to the editor for her inspection. The editor transfers the articles to the sponsor for her approval.

The typists' jobs include the dummyming of the material and the arranging of a "layout" sheet. The head typists stencil, headline, and mimeograph "The Dispatcher".

Each Friday the finished product is delivered to the students of C. H. S.

Alice Habel, Gloria Ellett, and Bobby Williamson make a headline.

Students enjoy "The Dispatcher."

Assembling articles for the weekly paper are Gloria Ellett, Bobby Williamson, Elwin Kessler, and Lowry Rogers.

Railroader Staff preserves school memories

The Railroader is devoted to the reflection of every phase of Crewe High School activity. It devotes sections to the faculty, classes, clubs, organizations, activities, and advertisements.

The Railroader derives revenue from subscriptions by students and organizations and by advertisement by local business.

We have attempted to preserve the life of the students in formal and candid situations. We are grateful to all the faculty, students, and advertisers who assisted in many ways. Our special thanks go to our sponsors, Mrs. Juanita Yates and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson.

Extra coverage has been made possible by the addition of eight pages. The splendid support of all concerned has made possible this improvement.

We hope that this pictorial record of events of this year will revive and sweeten your memories in the future. We have enjoyed compiling this record and hope that each of you will be pleased.

Laura Jean Jenkins, Mary Pridgen, and Catherine Frank work on a layout for a page in the Railroader.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Through much hard work Homecoming proves successful

Homecoming festivities got underway with the traditional snake dance and bonfire sponsored by the Pep Club on Thursday night. Cheerleaders stimulated enthusiasm with a "Beatnik" pep rally on Friday afternoon.

At the homecoming game, the fifteen girls representing the classes of Crewe High School were dressed in velvet sheathes of autumn colors.

During the half-time of the Crewe-Victoria game, Little Scott Gregory, attired in a complete miniature football outfit, lead the princesses and queen to the throne. Debra Saunders was crowned Homecoming Queen by Football Captain John Crittenden.

On Saturday evening, the traditional Homecoming Dance was held at the Crewe Community Center. "The Downbeats" furnished the music. Queen Debra, escorted by Bernard Farrar, lead off the figure symbolizing the athletic field. During intermission, delicious refreshments were served the students and their guests by the parents of the S. C. A. Council Members.

Senior candidates for queen are Debra Saunders, Nancy Paulette, Mary Walrod, Brenda Kelley, and Alice Habel.
